

Boston Spa GP bids farewell to his colleagues

A FAREWELL party was held at the Spa Surgery in Boston Spa last Monday night in honour of retiring senior partner, Dr John McArdle.

Dr McArdle has been practising at the surgery for 35 years and has been a senior partner for the past ten years.

As well as being a general practitioner Dr McArdle is also a trained ophthalmologist.

He was educated at Gordonstoun School and graduated from Edinburgh University.

He is a member of the Royal College of Ophthalmologists.

Practice Manager at the surgery, Mrs Fay Jebson said: "Everyone at the practice wishes him the best of luck in his retirement."

Dr McArdle, aged 65, from Clifford is hoping to spend more time with his family and to perfect his golfing and skiing skills.

Dr Gareth Harrison is welcomed as the new GP at the surgery and Dr Teresa Rose is the replacement senior doctor.

The retirement of Dr John McArdle from the Spa Surgery in Boston Spa. (W9648)

Doctor to my Grandma JMK

1965 - 99