THE great attention excited by the Poll Tax Returns outside the pale of the Society has induced the Council to depart from their usual rule, and to issue a limited number of copies of the work to non-members. To render the whole more useful to students, a Table of Contents has been prepared, and an Index to all the principal tax-payers.

The political History of the Tax is referred to in the third volume of the Rev. Canon Stubbs' "Constitutional History of England," Vol. II. p. 447, and the following extracts from the Rolls of Parliament (Vol. III. pp. 57, 58) will show the basis on which the tax was laid:—

Sources: The 1334 lay subsidy lists are in The Lay Subsidy of 1334, ed R E Glasscock (British Academy Records of Social and Economic History, NS 2, 1975). Both Wetherby and Ribston were described as cum hospitaler but it is not clear whether the Knights Hospitaller were included in the tax roll. The 1379 returns are in The Returns for the West Riding of the County of York of the Poll Tax laid in the Second Year of the reign of King Richard II, YAJ 7 (1882).
