

Wellhill Farm

Lying beyond the Biggin and College Farm , Wellhill has a right of way through it giving access to the public footpath across the Bramham Park Estate . Another fine old farmhouse , it has the further distinction of possessing a C18 Grade 2 Listed barn and stable block. This farm belonged to the Headley Estate until that was broken up and sold off around 1900 , when it became part of the Bramham Park Estate.

SE44SW

BRAMHAM CUM OGLETHORPE
LS23

BRAMHAM

1/23

Stable block linked to North side of Wellhill Farmhouse

Grade II Listed

Stable block. C18, extended and altered. Coursed squared magnesian limestone, pantile roof with one course of stone slate over the eaves. Rectangular plan. Two storeys and 3 bays, symmetrical; centre breaks forward, has altered doorways at ground floor, a blind ogee-arch above; outer bays have 1st-floor sill bands under simple Diocletian windows at 1st floor, altered doorways at ground floor; 1st bay has a cruciform pseudo arrow-slit at ground floor. Right return wall has similar feature at ground floor, Diocletian window above (with loading door instead of glazing). Added bay at left end has small window at ground floor; gable wall has external steps to loft doors.

