

The Demise of a Bramble Beech Tree.

Deemed to be diseased, the tree, in the Conservation area, was demolished in March 2000 with permission from Leeds N.D.C.

Brown's Tree Services of Appleton Roebuck carried out the felling, which necessitates Park Lane being closed most of the day.

Photographs by:

Ian Watson

Anne Palmer

David Parkin