Pear Tree Cottage was at the entrance to the Quarry, with the Brickyard cottages at the of Poggio Lane (real name Milnthorpe Lane)

Pear Tree cottages were at the side of the road with a big Pear Tree at the back, and the Quarry Manager lived in one house. In the 1940's the Williams family lived there, they had three sons.

Mr & Mrs Frank Reynolds will remember more, Florrie Bolas might know something too.

If Mr Machin has access to a Photocopier that enlarges I will lend you the Map but I do want it back.

1996 - when a new 'Pear Tree Cottage'

The Brick yards - pulled down to make way for the 1964 by-pass. See book page 57.
